Description of Duties:

This is an entry-level position responsible for performing limited reception and typing duties under direction, for a department or office. The work involves answering phones, directing visitors, processing paperwork and typing. This position differs from the higher, Receptionist Typist, since responsibilities do not involve handling complex questions and situations such as irate individuals. The employee works under direct supervision from a higher level clerical employee.

Scope of Examination:

The examination for this position will consist of two parts: (1) a multiple choice, written test and (2) a qualifying typing performance test. Candidates must pass both parts of this examination in order to receive a final passing grade for the entire examination.

The multiple-choice, written test will cover knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

1. Spelling

These questions are designed to test the candidate's ability to spell words that office employees might encounter in their daily work.

2. Clerical operations with letters and numbers

These questions are designed to test a candidate's visual perception and basic clerical accuracy in working with alphanumeric characters. The candidate is required to read, compare, check, reorder, and count letters and numbers following specific directions for each question. Knowledge of the alphabet and the ability to count are required.

Assistant Receptionist - Typist, ART-0614-03

3. Record Keeping

These questions are designed to test a candidate's ability to perform common record keeping tasks. The test consists of two or more "sets" of questions, each set concerning a different problem. Typical record keeping problems might involve the organization or collation of data from several sources: scheduling, maintaining a record system using running balances, or completion of a table summarizing data using totals, subtotals, averages and percents.

The Qualifying Typing Performance Test will consist of a test in accuracy and speed of typing at a minimum acceptable rate of twenty-five (25) words per minute corrected. The typing test will be administered at a later date only to candidates who receive a passing score on the written test. Candidates will be notified by mail of the scheduled date, time and place of the typing performance test.

Please see the attached form PTW-1 for information about waiving the typing performance test.
